Detectives are continuing their investigation into the circumstances surrounding a Deputy-Involved Shooting which occurred Tuesday, July 27, 2010, near 111th Place and Broadway, Los Angeles.

The location has been updated to have occurred at the 11100 block of North Broadway, Los Angeles.

Detectives have learned that deputies from Century Station observed Suspect David Hernandez, male Hispanic/29, looking in parked cars and checking for unlocked doors. When deputies attempted to contact Hernandez a foot pursuit ensued. While running, Hernandez appeared to be opening and removing a fanny pack he had around his waist, and ran into the backyard of the location.

A deputy ordered Suspect Hernandez to freeze and raise his hands as he scaled a gate. Hernandez landed in a crouched position and pointed an black object at the deputy. Believing that Suspect Hernandez had armed himself, and fearing for his life, the deputy fired two rounds at Hernandez missing him. Hernandez fled on foot.
